

Culwell & Sons Auctioneers

Terms and Conditions

- All items are sold "as is" in their current condition, with all faults and imperfections. We make no warranties or guarantees about condition, authenticity, or defects not described.
- We make our best effort to describe and photograph items accurately, but mistakes or inaccuracies may occur. Please inspect items thoroughly before bidding.
- Buyers are responsible for collecting purchased items from the auction house within the designated pickup times. We are not liable for items left on premises.
- All sales are final. No refunds or exchanges.
- By bidding, the bidder acknowledges they have inspected the item(s) to their satisfaction and buys at their own risk.
- We reserve the right to reject any bid at our sole discretion.
- Applicable sales tax will be added to winning bids. Buyer's premium of 15% also applies.
- Payment types accepted include credit card, cash, approved checks, Venmo, and wire transfer for high value items. Proof of ID may be required.
- Preview times are as stated on each auction page and description. Pickup times are as stated for each auction.
- We are licensed as required by the Texas Department of Licensing and Regulation. Our license number is TX# .
- Announcements made on the auction day supersede any prior advertisements.
- We are not liable for any accidents occurring on the premises.
- Ownership only transfers after full invoice payment and pickup from premises. Storage fees may apply for uncollected items. Abandoned items may be reclaimed and resold by the auction house.
- We may contact you by email and text messages about upcoming auctions and announcements. Your information is not shared externally.
- Auction house owners and staff may bid on items, under the same terms as other bidders.